- l) Candidates applying for the reserved category shall carefully indicate the claim for only one category in the admission form to be submitted to the University in the first instance before the start of counselling. No change of category will be entertained / permitted at the later stage in the application form.
- (m) If any new Institute is approved or seats are increased / altered in the existing institution by the Bar Council of India, such approvals will be taken into consideration. If the affiliation is granted by the affiliating University, permission for admission can be granted before the start of counselling. No permission for admission will be granted after the start of counselling in such cases.
- (n) There will be three counselling for admission. The total process of counseling will be completed within a period of six weeks. The shifting of seats will be allowed during the second and third counseling only.

(8) MANAGEMENT QUOTA SEATS:

- i) In pursuance of Hon'ble Supreme Court of India's judgment in T.M.A. Pai Foundation and others versus State of Karnataka and Others and in view of the interim Policy Regulations Notification, dated 10th June, 2003, issued by the University Grants Commission, 15% of the seats out of 85% state quota seats in un-aided private self-financing institutions shall be treated as management quota and shall be brought out of the purview of centralized counseling to be conducted by the University.
- ii) The University shall exclude the management quota seats from the centralised counselling and accordingly publish the details of these seats (institute-wise) on the option of the respective institutes.
- iii) The seats under the management quota shall be filled up by the concerned institute in the following manner:-

- a) The management quota seats will be filled up only after the third counseling is over as per the notified schedule.
- b) Each institute duly authorized by the University, conducting the counseling, shall publish an advertisement, mentioning the name of institute and seats against subject-wise combinations offered, in two leading newspapers (i.e. one in English and one in Punjabi Language). On the last day of counseling and may repeat this advertisement subsequently.
- c) The Management of the Institute shall fill up management quota seats on the basis of a merit list of applicants who had applied in pursuance to advertisement as stated in 3(b) above through its own counseling in a transparent manner.
- d) The basic eligibility criteria regarding educational qualification etc shall remain the same as prescribed in the notification.
- e) There shall be no reservation, in respect of the prescribed management quota seats.
- f) No college will be allowed to give any advertisement in the newspapers regarding admission before the third counseling is over. Any college found doing this, the admission committee shall cancel admission process of that college.

(9) In case of any dispute, the decision of the Counseling University shall be final.
